8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 ROLAND MA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 ESTHER PARK DENSMORE, Administrator
15 of Washington Care Services; WASHINGTON
16 CARE SERVICES, a domestic non-profit
501(c)(3) corporation, Washington,

17 Defendants.

NO. 2:20-cv-01355-JHC

ORDER

19 This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's motion for a stay of proceedings,
20 which motion is apparently unopposed. Dkt. # 119. The motion presents no legal argument.
21 And it merely seeks a stay "for the interest of justice with the expectation of the evaluation of 22 the defendant's competency will be completed soon." Without more, it is unclear exactly what 23 this statement means and how it serves as a basis for a stay. Thus, the Court DENIES the 24 motion without prejudice. Plaintiff may file another motion for a stay but must explain in such 25 motion the basis for such a stay.

1 Relatedly, the Court directs Plaintiff to file an update with the Court regarding the
2 status of his no-contact order and conditions of release in King County Superior Court (see
3 Order of April 14, 2022, Dkt. # 112) by Friday, September 30, 2022.

4 Finally, although it is unclear, the Court infers from Plaintiff's recent filings, Dkts. ##
5 114 & 119, that he might wish for the Court to dismiss one or more defendants from this
6 matter. If this is the case, he should so advise the Court.

7 DATED this 2nd day of September, 2022.
